SOCIETY BUSINESS: A major topic of concern to the membership is the proposal under consideration for us to change our meeting location to the Bay County Historical Museum.

Mrs. Gay McInerney, from the museum, was the speaker at the Jan. meeting and outlined for us the proposed offer. Advantages to our Soc. appear to be: 1. We would be able to keep our materials in a locked room at the museum, making the task of our officers easier, as well as having them at a central location. 2. We would have a place to meet as regularly scheduled, and at other times as necessary. No decision has been made in regard to this issue as yet, but hopefully closure will be achieved in the near future.

Officers for 1984, elected at the Dec. meeting are:

Pres. Ruth Staudacher
V.P. Inez Luce
Sec. Berry Corbishley
Treas. Hilda Taylor

MEMBERSHIP: Dues for the year are payable at this time. They are $5.00 per member and $2.00 for each additional member of the same family. Make a check or money order to: Mrs. Hilda A.
